Warm Election Is The Forecast

INDICATIONS ARE THAT CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA WILL BE HOTTEST IN MANY YEARS

Indications that the fall election campaign will be one of the bitterest in Indiana's annals was furnished by developments of the political front over the weekend.

Foremost was the summer outing of the Indiana Democratic Editorial Association at French Lick, where the party's biggest oratorical guns were unlimbered Saturday night in a slashing attack on the Republicans and a vigorous defense of President Roosevelt and the new deal.

Governor McNutt, at the same time, took occasion to defend his administration against charges of the Republican state committee that is exceeding all existing records for state government expenditures. He cited figures to refute the charges.

Republicans, on the other hand, were massing their forces for a big rally next Wednesday at Middlebury, in Elkhart county. This meeting will be the opening broadside in the G. O. P. campaign in the heavily populated northern tier of counties.

Both parties, probably better organized than at any time in years, are getting off to an unusually early start, with the race for United States senator between Arthur R. Robinson, the incumbent, and Sherman Minton, choice of the Democrats, holding the spotlight.

Don Irwin, Republican state chairman, has been holding conferences for weeks with party leaders and nominees. As a result elaborate campaign plans have been worked out, with certain duties allotted to each nominee.

The Democratic organization is depending to a large extent on aid from Washington in the campaign. Senator Robinson has been one of the outspoken opponents of the new deal and speakers high in the ranks of the party as well as financial assistance is anticipated from the capital.

Senator Robinson will be the principal speaker at the Middlebury rally. He will be preceded on the platform by Andrew J. Hickey of La Porte, who is seeking to regain the seat he formerly held in congress, and Raymond S. Springer, gubernatorial candidate in 1932.

More than 1,000 Republicans, including county and district leaders, are expected to be in Middlebury for the meeting.

On the same day, women Democratic leaders of the Calumet will gather in Gary to honor Mrs. Emory Scholl of Connersville, Democratic state vice chairman.

Plans for Mrs. Scholl's visit are taking on unlooked for proportions and the day promises to be one of the biggest pre-election gatherings for women in northern Indiana.

OLD LETTERS FOUND

AUSTIN, Tex., (UP)—Six letters, written more than 100 years ago to men at the battlefield of the Texas revolution, were discovered recently in the Bexar Archives at the University of Texas.

The messages never had been deciphered. A messenger enroute to the battlefield either was killed or other wise prevented from fulfilling his mission.

The letters provided a cross-section of home life near Houston long ago. One letter began: "Dear Somerville; Some damned rascal has stolen my horse." The writer, Pat C. Jack, begged Somerville to catch the thief.

TO REVISE CROP CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—Planning wartime vigilance over the nation's food and feed supplies next fall and winter, the farm administration also is preparing drastic revisions of its 1935 crop control program.

Official government estimates are for the lowest crop production in more than 30 years because of continued drought. Therefore, the AAA has undertaken a day to day watch over conditions and is starting an inventory of the food and feed supply which will form the basis for guiding its work during the coming year.

Next year's wheat plan is likely to call for the same acreage planted during the years 1927-32, rather than a 15 per cent reduction from that figure. Prospective for this move grew from the necessity cut in the carry-over from this year's excessive figure of 270,000,000 bushels to about the normal of 125,000,000 bushels.

Cotton production acres under the voluntary control plan and to 10,460,251 bales under the Bandhead act, probably will be extended in 1935 to allow production of 32,000,000 to 35,000,000 acres. This year's large carry-over of 13,000,000 bales is expected to be cut to about the normal level of 5,000,000 next year as a result of the prospective short 1934 crop of 9,195,000.

The program for corn and hogs is still to be considered. Final decision will hinge largely on the report of the feed and forage situation showing supplies available in comparison with the live stock population it must support.

Over a period of years, according to Secretary Wallace, the number of hogs tends to balance with the supply of corn. The administration will seek to maintain this ratio.

The 1935 tobacco program awaits drafting after 1934 sales, which will show how far the former excessive surplus has been reduced. Indicated production this year is 1,043,000,000 pounds, about 200,000,000 pounds less than normal consumption requirements.

The administration is still hopeful of drafting a single contract which will bring the major crops and some feed and forage crops together. Coupled with these plans may also be a crop lending program.

JOE PALMER, TEXAS KILLER, CAPTURED IN KENTUCKY

PADUCAH, Ky., Aug. 13, (UP)—A telephone call from a detective story fan led to identification of Joe Palmer, who escaped from the death cell of the Huntsville, Texas, prison. Palmer was seized by Chief of Police Bryant's detectives.

The chief was told to look on a certain page of a detective story magazine. There was a likeness of Palmer, giving his history.

Palmer was found asleep under a tree by detectives. He had 20 cents in his pockets. At first he was believed to be Alvin Karpis, who is wanted in Minnesota on kidnapping charges.

Palmer's fingerprints had been bruised by rubbing on concrete and identification was difficult. Finger prints were sent here from the Kentucky state penitentiary at Eddyville. Positive identification followed.

Palmer later boasted that "I've killed six men and been sentenced to burn. That's why I'm so hot, but you'll never find out who I am."

Confronted with his identity, Palmer snorted "Why should I tell you who I am, maybe I'm Palmer and maybe I'm not."

Palmer was arrested near a railroad track in the southern part of the city. Detectives Daily and Sheehan grabbed a 45-caliber automatic pistol that was in easy reach of the sleeper's left hand.

"The Lord had his arm around those two cops," Palmer muttered. "If I hadn't been dead tired for sleep you'd have to bury them."

He said to Chief of Detectives Kelley Franklin: "I ain't got nothing against you, cop, but I'm going to kill you if I get a chance—and if you don't kill me first."

whereby the company deducts union dues from pay checks of all employees, and what the company insists is a "closed shop." Since Friday not a round of crude aluminum has been turned out from the company's four largest plants.

The plants affected turn out aluminum ingots which are sent to finishing factories in various parts of the country to be rolled into sheets and stamped into pots and pans.

At the New Kensington district plant employing 4,300 men and women, the company's pay roll is more than a half million dollars a month.

The company's pay roll at the four plants on strike is well over a million dollars a month.

A few pickets loitered about the gates of the striking plants, but they found little to do. The walkout was accomplished with a surprising lack of violence. The workmen either did not wish or did not dare to incur union wrath by trying to enter the plants. The union insists 90 per cent of the men employed in making virgin aluminum are members of the Aluminum Council of America, although the figure is disputed.

The Mellon-dominated aluminum company, pointing to what it claims is a three and one-half year supply of bulk aluminum, defiantly declared that the strike "will not affect our attitude," and called the union demands "opposed to the spirit and letter of the N.R.A."

Some 6,500 employees in aluminum finishing plants in the New York City districts are unaffected by the strike and, according to the company, are unorganized.

Part of the bulk aluminum is piled in the yards of the striking plants. The union insists that "not a workman will lift a hand to load it on cars for shipment to the finishing plants, where it is made into automobile bodies, dishes and prepared for scores of other uses."

As the strike entered its third day, observers believed it had settled down to a battle of dollars.

The company believes that in a week, or a month, or perhaps six months, impoverished workmen will rise and crush the union.

But before the thousands of dollars in union coffers are exhausted, the union believes the aluminum company will face a dearth of crude aluminum and a flood of unfilled orders, and will take the men back at their own terms.

BANDITS HOLD UP INN

SEYMOUR, Ind., Aug. 13, (UP)—

A gang of eight bandits held up customers and employees of the Mapleton Inn near here today, obtaining cash, jewelry and three slot machines.

Customers in the building were lined up against the wall while four of the bandits robbed them of their possessions.

The other four bandits held up customers who were sitting in their automobiles outside the place.

The raiders had two automobiles. Mapleton Inn is at the junction of state roads 31 and 50, three miles east of here.

REASONS TO BE PROUD LISTED

BOONVILLE, Mo., (UP)—It seems the United Spanish War Veterans have plenty of reasons to be proud of participation in that war, according to a list furnished by Hugh L.

Stephenson, commander of the department of Iowa, 1932-33, and revealed at the 30th annual encampment, Department of Missouri, here recently.

Excerpts from Stephenson's list, showing why he believes a veteran of the Spanish-American war should be proud of his participation:

It was America's first "war for humanity."

It was America's only 100 per cent volunteer army.

It was the only war in history that paid dividends.

It was not fought to a draw—America dictated the peace terms.

It was responsible for building of the Panama Canal.

It was responsible for passage of the National Defense Act.

It led to abolition of yellow fever and kindred diseases.

It furnished every commander for the U. S. in the world war.

It was the U. S.'s first campaign fought on foreign soil.

It marked industrial reconstruction of the south.

CANADIAN HAS 5-YEAR PLAN

MONTREAL, (UP)—A five-year

"six-point plan" designed to solve Canada's social and unemployment problems has been drawn up by Mayor Camillien Houde, of Montreal. He will submit it to the Quebec and Dominion governments for consideration.

The Mayor believes his plan would afford work for the unemployed and permanent livelihood for the unemployed, yet attain its object with a minimum of interference by the State in private enterprise.

The Mayor's plan has six main points:

1. Back-to-the-land movement on a national scale.

2. Canada-wide adoption of old age pensions.

3. Tax of five per cent on all incomes over $1,200 a year to form a fund out of which the State would pay 50 per cent of labor costs to property owners rebuilding or repairing their holdings so as to activate the key industries and pick up thousands of skilled artisans now idle.

4. General legislation for gradual re-establishment of the woman in the homes and the man in factory and office.

5. Legislation setting maximum hours of work and minimum pay for all in Canada.

6. Curb on financial buccannery by a law under which five directors in each corporation would become responsible, civilly and criminally, for the acts of their organizations.

HOUSING ADMINISTRATOR SAYS

DIRECTORS WILL STAGE 'SALES

PROMOTION' EFFORT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—Regional, state and district directors were named late yesterday to inject impetus into the federal housing administration's campaign to modernize millions of homes and commercial buildings.

At the same time, James A. Moffett, housing administrator, told reporters he did not "look for any general reduction whatever" in prices of building materials.

"There has been the general impression," Moffett said, "that to start the campaign a bargain price might be named. With few exceptions I believe prices are reasonable and generally below the 1926 level."

The new directors, the administrator said, were selected primarily for sales promotion activity. They will contact local communities through chambers of commerce, women's and civic clubs to tell home owners how and why they should borrow for home modernization.

"It will be purely a local effort, fostered by the directors," Moffett asserted.

Moffett implied political considerations did not govern choice of the directors, pointing out "a lot of financial institutions are run by Republicans and many Republicans are home owners."

In some places, he said, he thought Republicans were needed to "loosen up" the program.

Thirty of the new directors are state directors also of the national emergency council. The appointments were made by Donald R. Richberg, head of the NEC, with the concurrence of Moffett.

While they get their pay—from $4,500 to $6,000 each—through the housing administration which retains full authority over the directors.

Moffett said the directors would be replaced in "a few weeks or months" with permanent state organizations involving personnel of the FHA only.

CONTOUR OF NIAGARA FALLS

CHANGED AS ROCK FALLS

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Aug. 13, (UP)—The contour of the world famous horseshoe falls changed in a split second today when several hundred tons of rock toppled from the brink of the mighty cataract and crashed 160 feet into the turbulent Niagara river gorge.

The spectacular cave-in was accompanied by a tremendous roar which sent echoes rocking through the gorge and frightened residents and tourists.

It developed a new horseshoe within the falls, the first survey indicated.

The beauty of the scenic wonder was greatly enhanced, witnesses said.

A large amount of water was diverted with greater speed to the right fork of the horseshoe, heretofore practically dry, especially in drought seasons.

The tumbling rock bored a new notch in the falls, covering approximately 25 per cent of the entire American end of the Canadian falls.

Water from the west end of the Niagara river rushed over the rock, churning and forming a new length of rapids, as it shot over the new break.

GANGSTERS KILL BOXER

REVERE, Mass., Aug. 13, (UP)—

Three mobsters, armed with machine gun and automatic pistols, murdered

Nate Seigel, night club owner, sportsman, and former New England welterweight boxing champion, in the living room of his home here early today.

The killers escaped in a sedan bearing Maine registration plates.

Seigel's brunette wife, Clara, had just left the room and was busy in the kitchen at the time of the shooting. Asleep in the apartment were the victim's son, George, 9, and adopted son, Oliver, 17.

Rushing into the living room at the sound of the shots, Mrs. Seigel found her husband dead on the floor. She screamed hysterically then rushed to the telephone, called police headquarters and cried:

"Nate has been killed! Get a doctor!"

Neighbors who soon were on the scene noticed that the killers failed to take several hundred dollars in cash—the receipts of Seigel's Clover Leaf night club—that lay on a table in plain sight.

Eight hours after the murder no arrests had been made. One phase of the investigation concerned a report that Seigel had been threatened with bodily harm unless he sold a certain brand of ale at his night club. It was understood that Seigel, a fearless 200-pounder, had had a fist fight with the makers of the threat.

Seigel began his ring career 20 years ago as an amateur. Overseas, during the war, he won the welterweight championship of the 82d division.

CANADIANS PLAN GOLD

HUNT IN SUNKEN SHIP

HALIFAX, N. S., (UP)—An attempt to wrest treasure from the hull of an unidentified ship which sank off Portuguese Cove, near here, a century ago, is to be made by a party being organized by C. S. Gould.

The ship lies in an inlet near the entrance of the Halifax Harbor. Reports that a fortune in gold lies in the vessel's hull have been confirmed by the recovery recently of a quantity of the precious metal by a lone diver.

The diver said the wreck is hard to reach and will have to be broken up with dynamite before the treasure can be taken out.

MOVIE CENSOR WAR

MISSILES EXPORT FILMS
WASHINGTON, (UP)—The battle in the United States over the "immorality" of motion pictures will have little effect upon their use in foreign countries, according to officials who study the movie export business. Hollywood recently has been forced into a cleanup campaign by the many religious and social organizations that threatened a movie boycott.

This controversy has caused a great many excited accusations and denials, but from reports to the department of commerce it is evident that foreign censorship is more interested in stamping out political, religious, social and racial propaganda.

Films sent abroad encounter a great many censorship problems, but questions of morality usually are insignificant and considered only in connection with the possible influence upon children, according to these reports from foreign capitals.

An almost universal taboo seems to be placed on scenes depicting revolutions or uprising against established governments. It is perhaps significant that Japan has extremely strict laws regarding this phase of censorship.

Germany, Italy, Egypt, Palestine, Turkey, Persia, China, Korea, Chile, Ecuador, and Venezuela have similar regulations.

Many countries ban immoral films, but such cases usually are rare, because most pictures can be released to be seen only by persons over a certain age. Thus instead of attempting to make all films fit for juvenile consumption, they usually are graded as they are in the Netherlands—one group for persons of all ages, a second for those over 14, a third for those over 18, and a last group that are banned altogether.

PRODUCE PRICES UNEVEN

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Farm produce prices wobbled uncertainly on the horns of a new "bull" movement today.

Peak prices reached in the Chicago market's last week in many instances were more than double what they were during the low of 1933 when they bumped the bottom.

True, Friday and Saturday saw sharp breaks, but the general trend over a period of a year and a half has been sharply upward. The extreme low for future delivery of wheat in Chicago was 41 1-2 cents a bushel Thursday, May wheat here hit $1.17. Similarly corn on Feb. 28, 1933, sold at 25 cents for delivery in July; the May quotation Thursday at the top was 88 3-4 cents, more than trebled.

In May last year, farm products made a noticeable upward spurt, attributed by many traders here to the administration's inflation policy which President Roosevelt said at the time would serve to force prices to prewar levels.

The midyear boom of 1933 continued until July when same grain prices reached even higher levels than those of last week. A collapse, as abrupt as

Barter Eggs for Fair Tickets

"You're just a few days early," said World's Fair Gatekeeper Edward Ellis to young farmers as they tried to exchange a basket of eggs for tickets to A Century of Progress in Chicago. The Fair has announced that it will accept all kinds of farm produce in lieu of cash for admissions during Farm-Week-at-the-Fair, August 11 to 18. Even a half-pint of chinch bugs will be good for one admission. The children are, left to right: Katherine McBride, George Chambers and his twin, Jimmy.

Produce Will Be "Good as Gold" During Farm Week at World Fair

Chicago.—Farm produce of all kinds will be accepted in lieu of cash for admissions to the World's Fair here during Farm week, August 11 to 18, officials of a Century of Progress exposition have announced. Wheat, corn, chickens, eggs, cabbage, cattle—anything at all that comes from the farm—may be brought to the Court of Honor entrance and there traded for admission tickets.

Bringing a real value to something that has actually been costing the farmer money—millions of dollars—the Fair has also announced that it will accept chinch bugs for admission tickets during Farm week. A half-pint of the ravagers that have destroyed fifteen per cent of the Illinois corn crop and have wreaked similar havoc throughout the farms of the Middle West will be taken for one adult or two children admissions.

Statistics at the Fair estimate that the number of chinch bugs that can be taken from one stalk of corn will be worth more in terms of Fair admissions than the stalks of corn would be worth in terms of cash, even if it were perfect.

Following is a partial schedule of admission value of various kinds of produce. Throughout the table two child admissions may be substituted for one adult:

Four thousand dollars in cash prizes has been set up for special Farm week contests. Horse-pulling, hog-calling, health, fashion, needlework, fiddling, milking and other contests will be conducted.

Chester C. Davis, chief administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, speaking on Farm Organization day Monday, August 13, promises to have a message of vital importance to farmers. Another special farm event is the personal appearance of the entire WLS National Barn Dance cast in a free, two-hour show at the Court of States Tuesday, August 14, night.

Railroads, bus lines and other transportation agencies will offer unusually low round trip rates during Farm week. Special free guided tours of the Fair grounds will be conducted for the farmers after they arrive.

Scene of Moslem-Jewish Riots

A smoldering religious war between Arabs and Jews that flared into open massacre at Constantine, Algeria, in which more than 100 persons were slain and 300 wounded following the alleged desecration of a mosque by a Jewish soldier, was declared under control as French colonial troops enforced martial law. Here are scenes from Constantine where fanatical Moslems ran riot: Top, part of the business district; bottom, the famous pyramid tomb in the city.

Harbors to Profit by System of "Free Ports"

Long advocated as a means of building up the revenue at America's entry harbors, "free ports" finally have been given sanction by congress. These "foreign trade" zones, where foreign merchandise destined for other foreign countries is unloaded and reshipped, heretofore have been frowned upon by high tariff wall enthusiasts in the U. S. and penalized by excessive red tape and custom bond deposits. Advocates of the "free ports" declare that since the U. S. is the strategical transfer point for goods going from Canada to Latin America, and Europe to the Far East, restricted areas should be set aside to reap profit from unloading, repacking and reshipping while in domestic waters. In Europe numerous destination points have made distributing centers economically necessary. Free ports in Hamburg, Copenhagen and Danzig handle enormous tonnage, employing thousands.

Church Worker Kills Rival
